
Perinatal Outreach Program presents:

Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient

Tuesday November 3rd, 2015 8:30 a.m.-3:00 p.m.

Care of the Pediatric Surgical Patient

Speaker: John Wolford RN, UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Recovery Room

Upon completion of this program the participant will be able to:

- Describe methods to prepare children and their parents for surgery
- Optimize the patient environment for safety
- Manage pediatric pain using validated pain tools
- Perform a comprehensive pre and post-operative assessment

Pediatric Emergencies

Speaker: Krista Chavez RN, BSN UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Emergency Department

Upon completion of this program the participant will be able to:

- Recognize signs of decompensation in the pediatric patient
- Identify risk factors for decompensation
- Manage care of the pediatric patient in shock

Pediatric Emergency Skills

Speaker: Charles Hood RN, UCSF Benioff Children's Hospital Transport Team

Upon completion of this program the participant will be able to:

- Practice placement and use of vascular access devices for pediatric emergencies
- Practice use and administration of emergency drugs for pediatric resuscitation
- Manage the pediatric airway

Location:

Washington Hospital Healthcare System
Anderson Auditorium Room C
2500 Mowry Avenue, Fremont

Participants must pre-register by 10/27/15

WHHS Staff: no charge.

Participants will receive a syllabus
and RN CEU credit

Name: _____

Dept: _____

Email: _____

Address: _____

RN/RT License #: _____

Fax completed registration forms to
UCSF Perinatal Outreach
(415) 353-1503